Truck Driver Class "A" Commercial License #210193

Help wanted! There is a critical workforce shortage of truck drivers at our heavily-congested ports. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics (May 2020), the Los Angeles/Long Beach/Anaheim and Riverside/San Bernardino/Ontario metropolitan areas rank amongst the highest in national employment demand for heavy and tractor-trailer truck drivers. With a median-average-hourly wage of $22.66 and even higher-average-hourly wages of $33.41, now is the time to start a lucrative and exciting career in transportation. In California, you may be hired to drive a commercial motor vehicle (CMV) carrying cargo that originates and terminates within state lines if you are at least 18 years old, and to drive for interstate commerce or transport hazardous materials/waste if you're 21 or older. In either scenario, you need to hold a Commercial Driver's License (CDL) in order to drive a CMV. In this comprehensive 10-week 170-hour course, you will obtain the knowledge and skills necessary to pass the California commercial truck class "A" driver's license written exam and driving test. To complete your license requirements, you must take the written exam and the driving test at the California DMV, which will be scheduled by your instructor. To register in this class, you must have a standard valid California Drivers license. For more information: https://www.elcamino.edu/academics/community/rapid-job-training/truck-driver.aspx

Pickleball #7820003

Pickleball is one of the fastest growing sports in the country. And here's why: The rules are simple. And while it's easy for beginners to learn, it can quickly develop into a fast-paced, competitive game as players become more skilled. Combining elements of tennis, badminton, and ping-pong, pickleball is played with paddles and a plastic ball on a tennis court with a slightly modified net. Once you play a game or two, you'll be hooked! In this class you'll be introduced to the history and rules of Pickleball while learning basic Pickleball skills such as forehand and backhand groundstrokes, serves, dinks, overhead, and volley shots. You'll also learn game strategy for singles and doubles through class play. Chocolate Love Tour #020009
Discover some of the southland's finest chocolate candy makers and the basics of bean-to-bar chocolate making in a relaxed, daylong journey. All the while, you will be able to indulge your own chocolate obsessions and make gift purchases for family and friends. Led by choc-holic John Powers, you will begin your day at ChocoVivo in Culver City, one of only three bean-to-bar manufacturers in the area – that is, chocolatiers who process their own cocoa beans. Here, every step of the chocolate-making process is done on site. Next, explore the Hungarian chocolate tradition at K Chocolatier in Beverly Hills where Diane Kron brings her family tradition to the U.S. with crisp rice chocolate bears, rum truffles, and much more. Afterwards, there will be an exploration of the Swiss tradition at Teusher Chocolates, a global brand that ensure consistency by regular air delivery from Europe. Next, find out about the contemporary chocolate candy making at nearby andSons Chocolatiers. Here, the candies are like jewels. Taking time out for lunch on your own at the comfortable La Scala Restaurant (and an espresso or a glass of red wine if you are so inclined), engage in conversation with your excursion companions to discover what has brought them to this unique journey. After lunch, take a deep dive into the long-standing Edelweiss Chocolate, a cornucopia of chocolate candies and other sweet delights and the inspiration for the memorable "I Love Lucy" candy episode. Itinerary subject to change: The factory tours require attendees to wear closed-toe shoes; and not to wear perfume, colognes or heavy-scented lotions/oils, or you may be refused admission. Excursion fee includes factory tours and tasting fees.
